Dear Offices of Legislative Hearings,

I am writing to appeal the Vacant Registration Fee. I've been working tirelessly on turning 272 Richmond St. property into a house that is clean, sound and code compliant. It's taking a long time because of such extensive needed repairs and upgrades. I signed on to this house in 2005 at a time when all the good houses were taken and only problem houses like this were available. Even though the house was cleared by inspectors then, code has changed and evolved so I am currently spending 20k to bring this old plumbing to code. In the last year I've had several plumbers about to start and they all flaked for jobs in better places. So I have spent a lot of time and money making it feel cleaner and safer to work here. I just paid for a new roof and new electric service box, had large trees removed, lots of restoration and cleaning where permits aren't required.

Because the plumbers will need to open walls and ceilings and floors. I felt it best to handle permits for building, heating, and electric after the plumbing is done. I expect to have almost everything complete by January 2027. By then only the deck might need new topping or I might get that done this fall and there may be a few other loose ends to finish by spring. My goal is to finish this house so that the next owners will have a long lasting solid investment where they can focus on their lives, jobs, and family without being burdened by the needs of the house. It has always been a house of great needs, so I'm asking the city to help me achieve this goal by waiving this Vacant fee, and I look forward to completing everything to code with the inspectors soon.

Regards,
Paul Mulcahy
