Yes, you can remove the placard from the door.

I will ask they cancel the hearing per your request.

Thanks

Am I authorized to remove the placard from my front door?

I don't have time to call the cancellation number, yet; can you cancel the hearing?

So I still have the order to vacate?
And what about today's hearing?

Good morning Mark,

Since the water heater has been replaced, we will lift the condemnation.

Thank you for your cooperation.

The water heater has been replaced!

Regardless of having a working water heater, I'm still ordered to vacate before our hearing tomorrow.

I've included the following:

1. A picture of the order to vacate, listing 5-26-2026
2. The plumber receipt, dated 5-23-2026

The plumber said he will be filing the permit tomorrow; as offices are not open today and it was installed on Saturday.

The home has not had hot water since May 4th. We assumed it would have been repaired by now. We have issued orders to repair the water heater under permit by 5/26/28. The property must have hot water, which is a basic need.

Thanks
